Roots Music From The Swamp Today On The Flying Eye Radio Network

"For Every Moment Of Triumph, For Every Instance Of Beauty, Many Souls Must Be Trampled."
Hunter S. Thompson, Famed American Journalist

Malibu, California, October 25, 2012 - This week's addition of the Flying Eye Radio Network's Music Gumbo comes straight from the swamp as members of The Black Tongued Bells sit down with host Andy Goldfinger to discuss their unique approach to music. Dubbed as "American Swamp," the distinctive brand of roots music that comes from the Black Tongued Bells has gained them a dedicated fan base over the past 11 years. The Los Angeles based group has also become known for their two vastly different performances, their Electrified Roots Rock 'n Roll Show and their "Swamp Opera," combining storytelling and song in the form of musical theatre. With these two shows tapping everything from Roots and Rock 'n Roll to Gospel and Cajun, it can be hard to define the sound of the Bells, but band member D. Miner described it perfectly. "Imagine if the Stones came from Louisiana...they might sound like us."

Listen to Music Gumbo's exclusive interview airing on October 25th to hear for yourself what The Black Tongued Bells and their electric roots music are all about. You'll even get to hear a few tracks from the Bells' new CD, "Every Tongue Has a Tale to Tell." Previous Music Gumbo interviews include Little Feat members Paul Barrere and Bill Payne as well as David Lindley, Coco Montoya, Jason Sinay, and Jim Messina.

Flying Eye Radio Network is an Internet radio station which began broadcasting in 2007. Flying Eye broadcasts the entire spectrum of musical colors. Every single type of music is represented on the Flying Eye Radio Network. Jazz, rock, hip hop, R & B, country, rockabilly, and classical are just some of the pieces that make up this musical puzzle. It's a cerebral surge of auditory ambition. The lines of music are not blurred they are erased. Each person has the ability to pick whatever music they want, there is no list, no consultant, and there is no one telling anyone what to play or what not to play. Flying Eye also features numerous unsigned artists that are out there making a living, touring and playing, and we make a concerted effort to ensure their music has a captive audience on a regular basis.

The Queen of the Flying Eye, Dusty Street, sets the tone for the week on Monday. She broadcasts semi-live from the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio. Her knowledge and ability to weave everything into a musical theatre masterpiece every single week is truly art in motion.

Tuesday finds Rock Rhythm & Roots hosted by Golden Mic Laureate Steve Cosio. It is the music lover's radio show. Steve brings the music of Austin and surrounding areas that we would never hear. Thursday finds Flying Eye Radio Network founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger offering the listener a potpourri of musical comestibles that encompass the entire musical spectrum. Nothing but trouble finishing the week in our own Radio Legend Geno Michellini and his Turntable Hits. Geno's show is a tribute to what FM radio used to be. He is untethered and unleashed! Geno provides laughter therapy with the Flying Eye Funnies, and the traditional weekend send off with the Bang The Drum ceremony. There is none better at intermingling the nuances of music, history and comedy into a cohesive understandable art form. The beauty is it's a podcast and can be listened to any time, via the web, or downloaded to your favorite Mp3 device or telephone.
