Dusty Street Celebrates One Year On The Flying Eye Radio Network

"It's Good To Be On This Side Of The Dirt"
Richie Hayward, Musician Extraordinaire

Malibu, California, October 29, 2012 - Join us in helping the Queen of the Flying Eye Radio Network celebrate her one year anniversary! Though the Queen has only been with the Flying Eye for one year, Dusty Street is no stranger to radio. The veteran host has been in the field for over forty years, beginning her career as one of FM radio's first female DJs during the late 60s in San Francisco's underground radio. Eventually Street ended up at the famous KSAN, where she stayed for ten years before moving to the legendary KROQ in Los Angeles. There Dusty was an airwaves pioneer that helped the rebirth of radio in the 80s. Today Dusty broadcasts live from the Rock 'n Roll Hall of Fame on weekends for SiriusXM, but still makes time for her weekly FlyLow Show on the Flying Eye where she has been reviving the musical freedom of her early years for the past year.

In today's world where radio is highly constricted, the Flying Eye gives the "Madame of Music on the Internet" room to play what she wants when she wants. Help Dusty and the rest of the crew at Flying Eye continue to exercise their freedom of choice by celebrating the Queen's one year anniversary. Then tune-in weekly to the Flying Eye Radio network to hear Dusty and other radio legends like Geno Michellini change the way radio is listened to, one show at a time.

Flying Eye Radio Network is an Internet radio station which began broadcasting in 2007. Flying Eye broadcasts the entire spectrum of musical colors. Every single type of music is represented on the Flying Eye Radio Network. Jazz, rock, hip hop, R & B, country, rockabilly, and classical are just some of the pieces that make up this musical puzzle. It's a cerebral surge of auditory ambition. The lines of music are not blurred they are erased. Each person has the ability to pick whatever music they want, there is no list, no consultant, and there is no one telling anyone what to play or what not to play. Flying Eye also features numerous unsigned artists that are out there making a living, touring and playing, and we make a concerted effort to ensure their music has a captive audience on a regular basis.

The Queen of the Flying Eye, Dusty Street, sets the tone for the week on Monday. She broadcasts semi-live from the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio. Her knowledge and ability to weave everything into a musical theatre masterpiece every single week is truly art in motion.

Tuesday finds Rock Rhythm & Roots hosted by Golden Mic Laureate Steve Cosio. It is the music lover's radio show. Steve brings the music of Austin and surrounding areas that we would never hear. Thursday finds Flying Eye Radio Network founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger offering the listener a potpourri of musical comestibles that encompass the entire musical spectrum. Nothing but trouble finishing the week in our own Radio Legend Geno Michellini and his Turntable Hits. Geno's show is a tribute to what FM radio used to be. He is untethered and unleashed! Geno provides laughter therapy with the Flying Eye Funnies, and the traditional weekend send off with the Bang The Drum ceremony. There is none better at intermingling the nuances of music, history and comedy into a cohesive understandable art form. The beauty is it's a podcast and can be listened to any time, via the web, or downloaded to your favorite Mp3 device or telephone.
