Flying Eye Radio Network Launches Online Music Emporium Flying Eye Tunes Dedicated To The Independent Artist

"The Person Who Doesn't Scatter The Morning Dew Will Not Comb Gray Hairs."
Hunter S. Thompson, Famed American Philosopher

Malibu, California, January 08, 2013 - The Flying Eye Radio Network is proud to announce the launch of its new online store, Flying Eye Tunes! The online store is a great venue for indie artists to have their music downloaded and heard. All you have to do is create a Flying Eye Tunes login and be on your way to enjoying some new music. Many artists featured on the Flying Eye's podcasts can be found in the store including the likes of Jason Sinay, Robert Heft, Wildsted, Richie Barron, and Steel Toed Slippers. Whether you want to download individual songs or whole albums, Flying Eye Tunes is a fun and easy way to support your favorite artists. Individual tracks are only 89 cents and can be previewed before purchase. Just make sure to allow pop-ups from the Flying Eye on your browser to ensure proper download. If listeners like what they hear on the Flying Eye, the online store is just a click away to download some new tunes today!

In an effort to provide a venue for independent and unsigned artists to promote and sell their music Flying Eye Radio Network has launched Flying Eye Tunes, a complete online music store featuring a wide variety of artists and music. Many of the more popular online music stores only pay the artists a very small portion of the 99 cents charged for downloads. FERN knows that it is the artist who should get the lions share of the music revenue, and that will always be a commitment of this station.

The Flying Eye online store will only be charging 89 cents per song, per download, and after a certain number of downloads the artist will receive an even bigger piece of the pie for the fruits of their labor, instead of a smaller portion. Hopefully it gives artists without a distribution network an opportunity to broaden their fan base with these downloads.

Flying Eye Radio Network is an Internet radio station which began broadcasting in 2007. Flying Eye broadcasts the entire spectrum of musical colors. Every single type of music is represented on the Flying Eye Radio Network. Jazz, rock, hip hop, R & B, country, rockabilly, and classical are just some of the pieces that make up this musical puzzle. It's a cerebral surge of auditory ambition. The lines of music are not blurred they are erased. Each person has the ability to pick whatever music they want, there is no list, no consultant, and there is no one telling anyone what to play or what not to play. Flying Eye also features numerous unsigned artists that are out there making a living, touring and playing, and we make a concerted effort to ensure their music has a captive audience on a regular basis.

The Queen of the Flying Eye, Dusty Street, sets the tone for the week on Monday. She broadcasts semi-live from the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio. Her knowledge and ability to weave everything into a musical theatre masterpiece every single week is truly art in motion. Tuesday finds Rock Rhythm & Roots hosted by Golden Mic Laureate Steve Cosio. It is the music lover's radio show. Steve brings the music of Austin and surrounding areas that we would never hear. Thursday finds Flying Eye Radio Network founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger offering the listener a potpourri of musical comestibles that encompass the entire musical spectrum. Nothing but trouble finishing the week in our own Radio Legend Geno Michellini and his Turntable Hits. Geno's show is a tribute to what FM radio used to be. He is untethered and unleashed! Geno provides laughter therapy with the Flying Eye Funnies, and the traditional weekend send off with the Bang The Drum ceremony. There is none better at intermingling the nuances of music, history and comedy into a cohesive understandable art form. The beauty is it's a podcast and can be listened to any time, via the web, or downloaded to your favorite Mp3 device or telephone.
