El Chicano Has A New Album Due Out Soon Producer Gerry Gallagher Stops In To Talk About The New Album And Much More

"If You're Going To Be Crazy, You Have To Get Paid For It Or Else You're Going To Be Locked Up."
Hunter S. Thompson, American Philosopher

Malibu, California, April 04, 2013 - Join in on this week's addition of the Flying Eye Radio Network's Music Gumbo as host Andy Goldfinger sits down with popular music producer Gerry Gallagher for an extended chat.

A prominent member of the music industry for over 35 years, Gerry Gallagher is best known for his work as a producer for the legendary Latino rock band El Chicano. The unique sound of El Chicano first took the world by storm in 1970 with their Gold record and single, "Viva Tirado." What followed was a career spanning over 40 years with no end in sight that has included a seven album run with MCA and multiple hit songs including "Brown Eyed Girl," "Tell Her She's Lovely" and "Juntos." Gallagher continues to be a quintessential part of El Chicano's long-lasting career as he is currently taking on the project of producing their newest record.

Gallagher has recently bought VIP Studios in Calabasas, Calif. where the recording of the new El Chicano album is taking place. The studio is state of the art and equipped with a vintage Trident A board and a vaulted ceiling "live room" that is perfect for achieving the classic El Chicano sound. The new album that is to be finished at VIP over the next few weeks is said to be full of collaborations with some of music's biggest names. Serving not only as El Chicano's producer, but also as their manager, Gallagher already has plans to begin another album once the current album is finished. Gallagher also plans to work with a variety of other artists at his new studio. Other big names that the long-time member of the music industry has worked with include David Paich of Toto and Richie Onori, the drummer for the iconic 70s band Sweet.

To hear Gallagher talk about his work with El Chicano on their new album and much more, tune in to Music Gumbo's exclusive interview. Previous Music Gumbo interviews include Little Feat members Paul Barrere and Bill Payne as well as David Lindley, Joe Bonamassa, Jason Sinay, and Jimmy Vivino.

Flying Eye Radio Network is an Internet radio station which began broadcasting in 2007 and now broadcasts across 50 countries, and 48 of our 52 states. Flying Eye broadcasts the entire spectrum of musical colors, every single type of music is represented on the Flying Eye Radio Network. That includes jazz, rock, hip hop, R & B, country, rockabilly, and classical are just some of the pieces that make up this musical puzzle. It's new music, live music, and vinyl music. The lines of music are not blurred they are erased. Each host has the ability to pick whatever music they want, there is no list, and there is no one telling anyone what to play or what not to play. Flying Eye also features numerous unsigned/independent artists and we make a concerted effort to ensure their music has a captive audience on a regular basis. Many of these artists are featured on our online Flying Eye Tunes.

We are "The Antidote to Commercial Radio". Each musical week begins on Monday with the FlyLow show hosted by Dusty Street, semi live from the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame's Alan Freed Studio in Cleveland. Tuesday finds Rock Rhythm & Roots hosted by Golden Mic Laureate Steve Cosio, it is the Music Lover's Radio Show. Thursday the Flying Eye Radio Network founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger's Music Gumbo offers up a potpourri of musical comestibles that encompass the entire musical spectrum. Finishing the week our very own Radio Legend Geno Michellini and Turntable Hits. This is the show that pays tribute to what FM radio used to be. There is laughter therapy with the Flying Eye Funnies, and no better way to start the weekend than by Banging The Drum with Geno.
