Conan O'Brien Bandleader Jimmy Vivino Stops In For A Very Candid Chat

"For Every Moment Of Triumph, For Every Instance Of Beauty, Many Souls Must Be Trampled."
Hunter S. Thompson, Famed American Philosopher

Malibu, California, November 08, 2012 -On this week's addition of the Flying Eye Radio Network's Music Gumbo, host Andy Goldfinger sits down with late night music legend Jimmy Vivino for a candid interview. Vivino can be best recognized as the band leader of Jimmy Vivino and the Basic Cable Band, the house band for the popular TBS late night show Conan. Currently the music director for Conan, Vivino has been an integral part of Conan O'Brien's late night career since the beginning. Starting from the very first episode of Late Night with Conan O'Brien in 1993, Vivino has enjoyed a near 20 years of recognition as part of the best band in late night. When not rocking the small screen, Vivino can be seen playing with the popular Beatles tribute band The Fab Faux. Along with this and his solo work, he has played with legends such as Johnnie Johnson, Al Kooper and Levon Helm. Vivino has also produced for artists such as Phoebe Snow, Laura Nyro, John Sebastian and Donald Fagen. So what are you waiting for? Have a listen to Music Gumbo's interview with Jimmy Vivino to find out what this late night musician is all about.

Previous Music Gumbo interviews include Little Feat members Paul Barrere and Bill Payne as well as David Lindley, Coco Montoya, Jason Sinay, and Jim Messina.

Flying Eye Radio Network is an Internet radio station which began broadcasting in 2007. Flying Eye broadcasts the entire spectrum of musical colors. Every single type of music is represented on the Flying Eye Radio Network. Jazz, rock, hip hop, R & B, country, rockabilly, and classical are just some of the pieces that make up this musical puzzle. It's a cerebral surge of auditory ambition. The lines of music are not blurred they are erased. Each person has the ability to pick whatever music they want, there is no list, no consultant, and there is no one telling anyone what to play or what not to play. Flying Eye also features numerous unsigned artists that are out there making a living, touring and playing, and we make a concerted effort to ensure their music has a captive audience on a regular basis.

The Queen of the Flying Eye, Dusty Street, sets the tone for the week on Monday. She broadcasts semi-live from the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, Ohio. Her knowledge and ability to weave everything into a musical theatre masterpiece every single week is truly art in motion.

Tuesday finds Rock Rhythm & Roots hosted by Golden Mic Laureate Steve Cosio. It is the music lover's radio show. Steve brings the music of Austin and surrounding areas that we would never hear. Thursday finds Flying Eye Radio Network founder and Grand Poohbah, Andy Goldfinger offering the listener a potpourri of musical comestibles that encompass the entire musical spectrum. Nothing but trouble finishing the week in our own Radio Legend Geno Michellini and his Turntable Hits. Geno's show is a tribute to what FM radio used to be. He is untethered and unleashed! Geno provides laughter therapy with the Flying Eye Funnies, and the traditional weekend send off with the Bang The Drum ceremony. There is none better at intermingling the nuances of music, history and comedy into a cohesive understandable art form. The beauty is it's a podcast and can be listened to any time, via the web, or downloaded to your favorite Mp3 device or telephone.
