About the Oregon Country Fair About the Rural War Room

The Rural War Room is a 4 hour weekly broadcast. International, all-genre, unreleased to rare releases, from world premiere to out-of-print. Byron Werner & Donovan Suitt begin their 14th year of world wide weird antics. Rural War Room is founded by Byron Werner (Los Angeles, California) and Donovan Suitt (Little Rock, Arkansas). Both have extensive broadcast radio & production backgrounds with international ties and each has a history of changing the speed of records and playing them backwards - so they paired up right away.

They also record abstract turntable experiments - the start of the Rural War Room cyberband. Around this time, during a trip to Italy, Donovan and musician ErMan collaborated on sounds at Transistors Lab in Roma. - deciding that they, with Byron, would create using the internet as a studio. ErMan's project, Timeless Sonic Factory, recruited RWR tracks for Funky Juice, Italy. Cherry Red Records UK signed RWR in 2009 & 2011. Longtime radio partner Thin-P in Japan who plays bass in the cyberband, has featured RWR Radio and cyberband material in his Apple Computer Store live podcast sessions in Japan since RWR began.
